Law Enforcement

February 2021

Summerset Police Department is reminding everyone that sidewalks are to be shoveled within 24 hours of a snowfall (now that we are getting snow). Summerset does have a City Ordinance enforcing this requirement, along with several other “snow” related City Ordinances. You can find them on the City of Summerset’s website under “Code of Ordinances”.

Meet the New Officers

Officer Joshua Buntain

- Joshua Buntain joins the Summerset Police Department with the hope of fulfilling his desire to serve others. “I’ve always been drawn to Public Service. Law Enforcement is where I feel I can do the best.” - Josh
- Josh enjoys spending time outside, hunting, fishing, hiking, and riding motorcycles.
- Josh has two children, Leah (6) and David (4).
- “Working in Summerset is a new opportunity, to work in a nice community where there is a strong support for Law Enforcement.”

Officer Casey Montileaux

- “I have two children with my lovely partner Rachel. We have a cat named, Cinna.” -Casey
- When Casey isn’t at work, he enjoys hiking the Black Hills with his family and riding his motorcycle.
- “I joined Law Enforcement to be a role model for my children, family and to make a difference.” -Casey
